Market and Jefferson

LOUISVILLE, KY.,
SATURDAY MORNING—MARCH 2, 1861.

CITIZENS and Working-Men's Recommendations.

FOR MAYOR,
JOHN N. DELPH.

FOR THE TREASURER,
HENRY WOLFORD.

FOR AUDITOR,
HENRY STUCKY.

FOR ASSESSOR,
A. W. R. HARRIS.

MESSRS. MIDDLETON, STROBRIDGE & CO., of Cincinnati, have published a beautiful national picture, called the American Union: in the center of the picture is represented a portrait of Washington, and in a circle, the portraits of all the Presidents, surrounded by the Coats of Arms of all the States of the Union, and surrounded by the Coats of Arms of the United States, above which is seen hovering the American Eagle, embold of our nationality, and a beautiful and artistic allegorical group of figures, denoting Peace. On the left, a Landscape, showing the primitive condition of our country, with the Indian, and the smoke of his wigwam ascending amidst his forest-home and hunting-ground; on the right of the scene, the bold and hardy pioneer, with his family, his trusty rifle in hand, on their march into the wilderness, to plant the seeds of Civilization and Empire. In the foreground the majestic form of the God of Liberty, supporting the American Flag and resting upon a shield, on either hand, the shield and the smoke of their industry and skill.

THEATRE.—The farewell benefit of Miss Clair, last evening, was a triumphant success. The boxes were filled with the delighted audience we have never seen.

The old and favorite play of the Hidden Hand was, if possible, better played than before. The plot of the original story was more carefully delineated than in the former presentations. Mr. Barnes' "Vertigo Mother" was, as always, a wonderful success.

The audience was kept in a roar of laughter from the beginning to the end.

Jenny Hight's dance was rapturously encored, but the encore brought out the inventive jigs.

To-night the great nautical drama of Capt.

Kyd, and the sensation play of the Idiot Witnes, together with songs and dances, are the attractions. Could better be asked or given.

REVIVAL.—A great revival of religion is in progress at Portland, in both the Methodist and Baptist churches. There has been a protracted meeting in the former, under the charge of Rev. Jacob Goodson, during the last four or five weeks, and in that time there have been about one hundred conversions.

To the Baptist church, which has been holding meetings about a week or ten days, there have been eighteen or twenty new conversions.

There will be baptism at the river edge in Portland, on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. Some eighteen or twenty, it is expected, will be immersed. The Rev. Messrs.

Gibson and Robinson, of Louisville, and Delany, of Shively, are officiating.

CITY COURT.—Henry Ray, disorderly conduct; bail in $100 for three months. A.
Miller, charged with contempt of court; concluded. Charles Miller, stealing pants, led-spread, &c., from Wm. Cornwall; continued. H. H. McMannis, having in his possession counterfeit money and carrying concealed weapons; concluded. Alice Mc-Donald, suspected felon; concluded. John Napier, assaulting Julian Adam; own bond in $100 to answer. James Stiles, obtaining money under false pretenses from L. D.
Fisher; continued till to-day. Fred Volk took the final oath of citizenship.

SPRING GOONS.—We direct the attention of readers to the advertisement of Messrs.
Johnson & Kimball in our columns this morning. They are now receiving a large stock of new and beautiful goods, and will sell them at prices to suit the times. They occupy the corner store under the Masonic Temple, corner of Fourth and Jefferson streets.

COURT.—Hercules Walker, charged with participation in the assassination of the Hills shortly after, was brought before Judge Muir yesterday morning on a writ of habeas corpus, but the defendant held his position that the writ on account of the absence of the witness, and was recommitted to jail. Attachments were issued for the witness.

We understand that Mr. Gillis, who had advertised himself as a candidate for Mayor, yesterday authorized a number of the Working-men's Convention, in case his name was presented in the Convention, to peremptorily withdraw it. Mr.
Gillis' name was not even mentioned in connection with the office, in the Convention.

DISPATC.—John Bell denies seeking or expecting a seat in the Cabinet.

United States stocks advanced at Washington yesterday—a favorable omen. The Missouri Convention met at Jefferson City yesterday, and will probably adjourn to St. Louis. John Tyler has declared the action of the Peace Conference as worthless, it is stated. We trust that the dispatch is misled in its tenor.

The steamer Condor arrived last Thursday, with a large supply of superior Pomeroy coal for Messrs. Gibson & O'Connor, on Third street, opposite the Democratic office. They also have a good supply of Pittsburg coal, which they are selling at fair prices. Give them a boost.

We have received a copy of the recent celebrated sermon of the Rev. R. J. Breckinridge, from the publisher, H. H. Collins, Cincinnati. It is an able and patriotic paper, and will appear in the Danville Review for March.

Bishop Spaulding's next week will start on a lecturing tour to the diocese of Fort Wayne, and will lecture at Delphi, Logansport, and Fort Wayne. He will probably return for Sunday, the fourth of Lent.

The name of D. L. Rogers, of Lagrange, Texas, a graduate of the law School, was inadvertently omitted from the list of graduates published yesterday.

McCRACKEN COUNTY ATTORNEY.—The Sheriff of McCracken county was the first to pay into the Treasury the whole of the State revenue for 1860. This is a high compensation to the people as well as to the Sheriff.

Daniel L. Russell, of Texas, whose name does not appear in our list, is one of the graduates of the law department of the University of Louisville.

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT. UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE.—The commencement exercises at this institution had not reached to mid the scenes of former years, when the number of graduates was greater than it had been of late. We were glad to perceive in the crowded audience a manifestation of the interest which all citizens should feel in their University. Hundreds were compelled to leave, whilst many remained standing throughout the whole exercises.

Below we give the names of the graduates, from which it will be seen that, notwithstanding the political agitations and business stagnation of the year, the list is larger than it has been for many years:

GRADUATES—1861.

Medical Department. University of Louisville.

Achilles Wilkerson, of California; Hal-bert Dougherty, of Kentucky; Andrew J.
Smith, do; John C. F. McLean, Kentucky; W. M. Marlow, do; F. X. McLean, Kentucky; Notman Ladd, do; Joseph Dwyer, do; T.
W. Bedford, do; Richard E. Muell, do; Frederick Restanus, do; Jacob D. Vester, do; Richard K. Restanus, do; James D. White, of Indiana; Anak A. Rowland, of Kentucky; William E. Price, of Richland, do; Singe, Robert A. Harbin, of Tennessee; James V.
Scruggs, of Missouri; Samuel R. Bass, of Columbus G. Sibley, of Missouri; W. D. Barkley, of Kentucky; Henry M. Miller, do; Wm. Ray, Jr., do; John A.
Harrington, do; John C. Clegg, do; James J. Thomas, do; George J. Harries Wells, of Missouri; John D. Ires, of Alaska; J. H. Thomas, of Indiana; Thomas A.
McGregor, of Louisiana; Rufus H. Chaffield, of Kentucky; Henestus J. Bizzell, of Arkansas; Jacob Tichenor, of Kentucky; Marion W. King, do; Jackson J. Cooper, of Texas; Edward H. Fuller, of Kentucky; Thomas E. Jenkins, do; James Irvin, do; John J. Bell, do; Joseph Gardner, of Indiana.

The degree Ad. Fundum was conferred on Robert M. Todd, M. D., of Indiana; John B. Stout, M. D., do; and James H.
Fares, M. D., of Virginia; and the Honorary Degree upon Thomas L. McNary, of Princeton, Kentucky.

The valedictory address was delivered by Prof. J. B. Flinn. It is needless to say that it was a most masterly production, and attracted much interest.

We hope to give a brief sketch of it to morrow.

WOOD'S MINSTRELS.—This talented company will give their last grand entertainment to-night. They have performed to crowded and delighted audiences since their arrival in the city. This evening it will be exhibited for the benefit of schools and children.

John Michie was last evening taken into custody for being a participant in the murder of the Hill brothers, in the county on New Year's Eve.

THE PILGRIMS.—This Association of jolly, good fellows, will parade to-night, and should attract general attention. They will also appear on the stage at the Masonic Temple, for the Minstrels.

The best pictures in every style are made by Elrod and at a very low price. Elrod has just received from New York a fine assortment of cases and frames of every style and size; prices very low.

THE OKLAHOMA.—This is a beautiful exhibition, and will be repeated to-night at Moran Hall. This afternoon it will be exhibited for the benefit of schools and children.

John Michie was last evening taken into custody for being a participant in the murder of the Hill brothers, in the county
on New Year's Eve.

THE PILGRIMS.—The reason now given for Lincoln's precipitate flight from Harrisburg to Washington, was that his presence was vital to the harmony of the Peace Convention.

CHASE OF OHIO.—It is almost certain of a seat in the Cabinet according to the special dispatches to the Cincinnati Gazette.

Dennis Beard, John Fitzsimmons, and John Hotch, were lodged in jail for a robbery committed on the levee.

GERMAN GARDNER, & CO., wanted. See advertisement.

John Hall was arrested for participating in the swindle on the Pavilions.

ADVERTISEMENT EXTRAORDINARY.—EDWARD NEW IS WEALTH—CHAP STORE AND NEW GOONS.—The Great Western Boot and Shoe Store, No. 408 Market street, between Fourth and Fifth, north side, four doors from Fourth street, Louisville, Ky. Mr.
Charles F. O'Donnell has recently fitted up, in the best manner, regardless of expense, a first class house, for the exclusive use of ladies, misses', children, men's, and boys' boots and shoes. His stock is all brought direct from the best manufacturing houses in Philadelphia and Boston, and is determined to sell at the lowest prices for cash, and will not be undersold by any one in Louisville. Notwithstanding the cry of hard times, and the old, familiar tune of what cost of living, we have sold a great many pairs of boots and shoes at a low price, and will do so again. We have a large stock of boots and shoes, and will sell them at the lowest price for TRINITY.—Among the places worthy of the attention of the visitors to Louisville at the present time, is the great trunk manufactory and emporium of J. H. McCleary, on the northeast corner of Fourth and Main streets. His large manufactory enables him to supply trunks, boxes, bonnet and hat boxes, carpet bags, bazaar trunks, etc., of the very best quality, at unprecedented low prices. All of Mr. McCleary's work is beautiful, as well as durable goods. Give him a call.

The Daily Democrat to the Country. Now the Congress is in session and every one within the facilities of a daily mail should take a daily paper, we beg leave to remind our readers and the public generally that the Daily Democrat, for the country, is supplied at five dollars per year, or fifty cents per month, payable always in advance.

Let those who would keep themselves posted on the current events of the times send forward their subscriptions at once.

To Our Patrons in Jeffersonville. In order to do ourselves and our patrons in Jeffersonville justice, and to secure the prompt and early delivery of the Democrat, we have changed carriers, and Mr. C. D. Baily will deliver our paper, henceforward, at the rate of 12¢ cents per week, our regular rate in Louisville. Our circulation has lately increased fully fifty per cent, but we trust that its present numbers will be doubled within a few days. Those who do not receive their papers at once, will oblige us by reporting the fact to Mr. Baily, at BARNSTABLE's office, on Pearl street.

Keep it Before the People!—The First Gun of the Season.—Mr. Charles F. O'Donnell, of the Boston Store, No. 248 Market street, between Floyd and Brook, has just received by express to day, from New York, a fresh stock of goods, spring styles, which will be sold at unprecedented bargains. His reputation for selling cheap goods is a sufficient guarantee that what he says is the "truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth."

N. B.—We advise the public to call on our young friend, as he is worthy of the patronage of our Louisville people. He has left nothing undone to satisfy the most fastidious.

Meers, Donly & Strade have removed to No. 404 Third street, between Jefferson and Green streets. They are prepared to execute every description of business in their line, such as plumbing and gasfitting. The gentlemen composing the firm are active and intelligent master workmen, and deserving the patronage of all. See their card of removal in another column.

Orders for subscription to the Daily Democrat left at Geo. W. Barth's feed-store, northwest corner of Market and Twelfth streets, and at G. Zassing's drug store, southeast corner of Jefferson and Shely streets, will be promptly attended to by the carriers.

CHOICE PITTSBURG AND POMEROY COAL. We desire to say to all those who wish a good article of Pittsburg and Pomeroy coal, that it can always be found at the depot of Capt. W. A. Porter, corner of Jefferson and Third streets. Those who would deal with a fair dealer and clever gentlemen, will do well to leave the above office in mind when they want good coal.

JOINT PRINTING OFFICE FOR SALE.—A large and well-appointed Job Printing Office, with its presses and fixtures, is offered for sale. The proprietors, wishing to quit the business, will dispose of it on the most reasonable terms. For particulars, inquire at the Democrat office.

ENGINE AND BOILER FOR SALE.—We have for sale a good, serviceable engine and boiler, which can be bought low for cash. It can be seen at the Democrat office. If IVE HOURS.—Ladies' Dresses, Shawls, Gloves, etc., dyed to cleaned to appear like new. Also, gentlemen's apparel, dyed, cleaned or repaired in a superior style. Work done according to promise. Jefferson street, fourth door below Third.

TE. BRENNER.

CLOTHING FOR MEN'S AND BOY'S WEAR.—J. M. Armstrong, on Main, opposite the National Hotel, has now in store a most elegant stock of men's dress suits, men's business suits, youth's suits, boys' suits, children's suits, of fine and medium quality goods, suitable for the present and approaching season, every low price for cash.

HOME TESTIMONY.

INNOCENCE, Kt., Aug. 20, 1861.

Dear Sir: For the past several months have been laboring under great weakness and general debility, much of the time confined to my bed, and from which I received no benefit from my physician. After using some of your blood pills and blood purifier, purchased of your agent, Mr. Wm. H. Plummer, I feel as a new person, almost entirely free from disease, and would recommend your medicines to all who are in need of so invaluable remedies.

Yours, truly, MARY H. YOUNMAN.

HED.—Hippocratis, disease for everything, whether sustenance for mind or body, languor and exhaustion, imperfect secretion and circulation, are effectively relieved by the timely use of WRIGHT'S REJUVENATING Elixir; this great tonic and restorative remedy will expel every unpleasant symptom, imbue both body and mind with energy and vigor. By its continuous use every animal will be purified, every obstruction in the excretory channels swept away and every organ regenerated. These may seem strong statements, but they are fully borne out by the uncontrovertible testimony of a crowd of witnesses.

Sold by all respectable druggists throughout the United States and Canada. J. WRIGHT & CO., sole proprietors, New Orleans. See advertisement.

RE.—A time when there is great want the stock of dry lumber, sash, doors, blinds, &c., will find short, owing to the vast amount of improvements in Louisville, it will be interesting to the public to know that Alexander, Hill & Co., have enlarged their factory and have now a great many thousand of dry lumber. Call at their office on Main street, nearly opposite the Galt House, or at their factory on Fulton, above Preston street.

J. N. Collins sells the best of coal at his office, Third street, between Market and Jefferson. Give him your orders, d&w.
